(m) Sports Commission bonds shall not constitute an indebtedness of the District, a general obligation of the District, or a pledge of the full faith and credit of the District and shall not be secured by a pledge of Robert F. Kennedy Stadium or the ground lease therefore. Holders of Sports Commission bonds may not require the levy or imposition by the District of any taxes or, except as provided in this act or another District law, the application of any District revenues or funds to the payment of Sports Commission bonds. All bonds issued by the Sports Commission shall contain on their face a statement setting forth the above qualifications.

(n) The District pledges to and agrees with the holders of Sports Commission bonds issued pursuant to this act that the District will not limit or alter the rights and powers vested in the Sports Commission by this act so as to impair the terms of any contract made by the Sports Commission with such holders or in any way impair the rights and remedies of such holders until such bonds, together with interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceedings by or on behalf of such holders, are fully met and discharged. The District pledges to and agrees with the holders of Sports Commission bonds issued pursuant to this act that the District will not limit or alter the basis on which District funds are to be allocated, deposited and paid to the Sports Commission as provided in this act, or the use of such funds, so as to impair the terms of any such contract. The Sports Commission is authorized to include these pledges and agreements of the District in any contract with the holders of bonds or notes issued pursuant to this section.

(o) Regardless of their form or character, Sports Commission bonds are negotiable instruments for all purposes of the Uniform Commercial Code of the District of Columbia, approved December 30, 1963 (77 Stat. 631; D.C. Code § 28:1-101 et seq.), subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration.

(p) The bonds may be sold at not less than par value. If the proceeds of the bonds exceed the issue price, the excess shall be placed in a fund created for the payment of the principal and interest of the bonds. Prior to the issuance of bond certificates, the Sports Commission may issue temporary bonds or interim certificates without coupons, of any denomination whatsoever, exchangeable for bond certificates when such bond certificates are available for delivery.

(q) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the Sports Commission shall not undertake any financing action or activity which, in the sole discretion of the Chief Financial Officer of the District, would have an adverse affect on the financial position or creditworthiness of the District.

(r) On a date to be set by the Mayor, the Sports Commission shall submit to the Mayor a budget, which shall be included in the annual or supplemental budget transmitted by the Mayor to the Council pursuant to section 442 of the District of Columbia Self-Government and Governmental Reorganization Act, approved December 24, 1973 (87 Stat. 798; D.C. Code § 47-301), covering all anticipated revenue, transfers, expenses, and capital outlays of the Sports Commission.

(s) The Sports Commission shall periodically submit to the Council information as to any outstanding revenue bonds, indebtedness, and the nature of the indebtedness.

Sec. 15. Tax exemption.

(a) The properties of the Sports Commission, both real and personal, are declared to be public properties used for the benefit and welfare of the citizens of the District, and not for purposes of private or corporate benefit and income. Such properties and the Sports Commission shall be exempt from all taxes and special assessments now or hereafter imposed by the District.

(b) Bonds issued by the Sports Commission, their transfer, and the interest thereon are exempt from all District taxation except estate, inheritance, and gift taxes.

Sec. 16. Conflicting relationships or interests.

(a) No members or employees of the Sports Commission shall be employed by, be an officer or director of, or have any ownership interest in, any corporation or entity which is a party to any agreement with the Sports Commission under this act. No monies of the Sports Commission shall be deposited in any financial institution in which a member or employee of the Sports Commission is an officer, director or holder of a substantial proprietary interest. No real estate to which a member or employee of the Sports Commission holds legal title or in which such person had any beneficial interest, including any interest in a land trust, shall be purchased by the Sports Commission or by a corporation or entity for a facility to be financed under this act. All members and employees of the Sports Commission shall file annually with the Sports Commission a record of all real estate in the District to which such person holds legal title or in which such person has any beneficial interest, including any interest in a land trust. In the event it is later disclosed that the Sports Commission has purchased real estate in which a member or employee had an interest, such purchase shall be voidable by the Sports Commission and the member or employee involved shall be disqualified from membership in or employment by the Sports Commission.
(b) No member or employee of the Sports Commission shall in his or her own name or in the name of a nominee, be an officer, director, or hold an ownership interest in any person, association, trust, corporation, partnership, or other entity which is, in its own name or the name of a nominee, a party to a contract or agreement upon which the member, officer, agent, or employee may be called to act or vote.

(c) With respect to any direct or indirect interest, other than an interest prohibited in subsection (b) of this section, in a contract or agreement upon which the member, officer, agent or employee may be called upon to act or vote, a member of the Sports Commission or officer, agent or employee hereof shall disclose the same to the Secretary and such disclosure shall be in the minutes of the meeting of the Sports Commission prior to the taking of final action by the Sports Commission concerning such contract or agreement and shall so disclose the nature and extent of such interest and his or her acquisition thereof, which disclosures shall be publicly acknowledged by the Sports Commission and entered upon the minutes of the Sports Commission. If a member or employee of the Sports Commission holds such an interest, then he or she shall refrain from any further official involvement in regard to such contract or agreement, from voting on any matter pertaining to such contract or agreement and from communicating with other members of the Sports Commission or its officers, agents and employees concerning such contract or agreement. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any contract or agreement entered into in conformity with this subsection shall not be void or invalid by reason of the interest described in this subsection, nor shall any person so disclosing the interest and refraining from further official involvement as provided in this subsection be guilty of an offense, be removed from office or be subject to any other penalty on account of such interest.

(d) Any contract or agreement made in violation of subsection (b) or (c) of this section shall be null and void and give rise to no action against the Sports Commission.

Sec. 17. Small business, District owned business, minority business and women's business set-aside contract goals and procedures.

The Sports Commission is authorized and directed to establish, prior to initiating any project after the effective date of this act, small business, District owned business, minority business and women's business set-aside contract goals and procedures.

Sec. 18. Employees of the Sports Commission.

Sec. 19. Miscellaneous.

(b) All references to the Armory Board in the District of Columbia Stadium Act of 1957, approved September 7, 1957 (71 Stat. 619; D.C. Code § 2-321 et seq.), as amended, are hereinafter intended to be references to the Sports Commission unless the clear meaning requires otherwise.

(c) The provisions of this act are to be liberally construed so as to effectuate those powers which are specifically enumerated.

(d) If the Sports Commission is dissolved by repeal of this act, or ceases to exist for any reason, all of its assets, (including, but not limited to, cash, accounts receivable, reserve funds, real or personal property and contract and other rights) shall automatically be assigned to and become the property of the District.

Sec. 20. Annual report.
The Sports Commission shall file with the Mayor and the Council each year a financial statement relating to the activities and business of the Sports Commission during the preceding fiscal year certified as to accuracy by an independent auditor.

Sec. 21. Conforming amendments.
(a) The District of Columbia Stadium Act of 1957, approved September 7, 1957 (71 Stat. 619; D.C. Code § 2-321 et seq.) is amended as follows:

(1) Section 2 (D.C. Code § 2-321) is repealed.
