D.C. Code,
sec. 40-201

"That except as otherwise currently provided in section 601 of title 18 of the District of Columbia Municipal Regulations or as otherwise hereinafter provided by the Council of the District of Columbia, all motor vehicles and trailers registered in the District of Columbia shall be inspected annually and at the time of the registration of each motor vehicle or trailer there shall be levied and collected a fee, known as the 'inspection fee', of $5 if an inspection is required for the ensuing registration year for such vehicle. At the discretion of the Mayor of the District of Columbia, the Mayor may issue inspection stickers valid for a two (2)-year period on new passenger vehicles being registered for the first time in the District of Columbia. Thereafter, all such vehicles shall be inspected annually. The Council of the District of Columbia may prescribe regulations to permit a person who owns a motor vehicle or trailer not required to be registered in the District of Columbia to have such motor vehicle or trailer inspected in the District of Columbia. Such regulations shall fix the fee for such inspection in such amount as, in the Council's judgment, will be commensurate with the cost to the District of Columbia of such inspection."

Sec. 9. (a) The Mayor of the District of Columbia shall establish a Trust Fund pursuant to section 4(b)(8) of the District of Columbia Fund Accounting Act of 1980, effective June 14, 1980 (D.C. Law 3-70; D.C. Code, sec. 47-373) to be known as the "Driver Education Program Fund".

(b) Five dollars ($5) of the fee received for each motor vehicle operator's permit issued by the District of Columbia pursuant to section 7(a)(1) of the District of Columbia Traffic Act, 1925, approved March 3, 1925 (43 Stat. 1119; D.C. Code, sec. 40-301(a)(1)) shall be deposited in the Driver Education Program Fund.

(c) Amounts allocated to or deposited in the Driver Education Program Fund shall be used by a District of Columbia agency, exclusively, for the purpose of providing a driver education program for students who are residents of the District of Columbia and who are enrolled in a high school.

(d) This act shall not preclude or prevent the District of Columbia government or any other individual or organization from allocating, authorizing, or appropriating any other moneys for a driver education program.

(e) Within the limits of the amount available in the Driver Education Program Fund, the Mayor shall reimburse the direct costs incurred by any District of Columbia agency which, pursuant to this section, provides driver education to high school students.

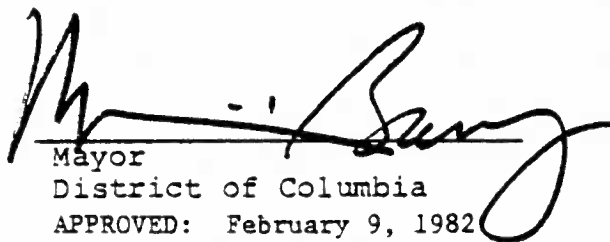

(f) If the Board of Education provides driver education to high school students during any given school semester, the Board shall be entitled to reimbursement in accordance with subsection (e): PROVIDED, That the Board has, at least thirty (30) calendar days before the beginning of the semester, informed the Mayor of its intention to provide such instruction at specified schools, together with expected enrollment in the program, and the estimated cost.

(g) If the Board of Education does not inform the Mayor of its intention to provide a driver education program pursuant to subsection (f) or inform the Mayor that it will not offer a driver education program during a particular semester, the Mayor shall designate a District of Columbia agency to provide a driver education program for the particular semester, and such agency shall be reimbursed pursuant to subsection (e).

Sec. 10. This act shall take effect after a thirty (30)-day period of Congressional review following approval by the Mayor (or in the event of veto by the Mayor, action by the Council of the District of Columbia to override the veto) as provided in section 602(c)(1) of the District of Columbia Self-Government and Governmental Reorganization Act, approved December 24, 1973 (87 Stat. 813; D.C. Code, sec. 1-233(c)(1)).
